INDEX

The names of contributors are printed in SMALL CAPITALS; subjects treated in ordinary type; titles of books reviewed in italics

Academic freedom and tenure of office, 416.
institutions, Parliamentary usage in, 177.
status of psychology, 431.
Age of things, Science and, 72.
AGGER, EUGENE E.—Dearborn's (George Van Ness) How to learn easily, 525.
Aim in education, 61.
ALEY, ROBERT J.—Education and democracy, 109.
Alien, Educating the, 538.
America, Bringing China to, 317.
American Academy in Rome, 212.
Universities, Association of, 103.
Arithmetic, Teaching thrift by means of, 512.
ASPINWALL, WILLIAM B.—Teaching thrift by means of arithmetic, 512.
Association of American Universities, 103.

Baccalaureate degree as an obstacle to educational progress, 94.
Ballard's (Philip Boswood) Handwork as an educational medium, 190.
Blewett, Death of Superintendent, 324.
BOUCKE, O. F.—Lecture or recitation in colleges? 497.
BOYNTON, FRANK D.—Cooperation in a school system, 329.
BRADLEY, BARCLAY W.—The baccalaureate degree as an obstacle to educational progress, 94.
Bringing China to America, 317.
Buffalo school survey, 204.

Carnegie Foundation Commission on insurance and annuities for college teachers, 108.
Central Europe, Problem of: (I), 161; (II), 294; (III), 397.
CHAPMAN, J. CROSBY—Function of Latin in the curriculum, 483.
Children think, What, 146.
China to America, Bringing, 317.
College course in history, The elementary, 447.
Entrance Examination Board, 207.
Entrance Examination Board, Work of the, 371.
Teachers, Carnegie Foundation Commission on insurance and annuities for, 108.
Lecture or recitation in? 497.
Confessions of a school trustee, 1.
Constructive elements in the curriculum, 137.
Cooperation in a school system, 329.
Course in economics, The introductory, 350.
Courses in state universities, Public speaking, 151.
Credit (Varying) based on quality of work, 44.
CRIBBS, G. A.—High school history course since 1890, 236.
Cultivation of superficiality, 215.
Culture and Kultur from the viewpoint of a philologist, 227.
Curriculum, Constructive elements in 137.
Function of Latin in the, 483.
Reorganization of the high school, 122.

Dearborn's (George Van Ness) How to learn easily, 525.
Death of Superintendent Blewett, 324.
Democracy, Education and, 109.
Democratic suspicion of education, 433.
Discussions, 94, 177, 312, 416, 512.
Dresslar's (Fletcher B.) School hygiene, 186.

Economics, The introductory course in, 350.
Educated nation, An, 517.
Educating the alien, 538.

Education, Aim in, 61.
and democracy, 109.
engineering, Study of, 11.
English, The future of, 87.
The democratic suspicion of, 433.
The war and, 534.
Educational ideals most worthy of loyalty, 325.
progress, Baccalaureate degree as an obstacle to, 94.
standards, Music and, 312.
Elementary college course in history, 447.
Elements (Constructive) in the curriculum, 137.
ELLIS, WILLIAM T.—Bringing China to America, 317.
Engineering education, Study of, 11.
English education, The future of, 87.
Entrance Examination Board (College), Work of the, 371.
Examination Board, College Entrance, 207.

Failure to teach the foundations of liberty, 341.
FARRAND, WILSON—Work of the College Entrance Examination Board, 371.
Force, The teacher as a moral, 459.
FORD, GUY STANTON—Johnson's (Henry) The teaching of history in elementary and secondary schools, 100.
FOSTER, WILLIAM T.—Should specialists specialize? 217.
Foundations of liberty, Failure to teach the, 341.
FRAYER, WILLIAM A.—The elementary college course in history, 447.
Freedom (Academic) and tenure of office, 416.
Function of Latin in the curriculum, 483.
(Proper) and limitations of normal schools, 465.
Future of English education, 87.

GILDERSLEEVE, VIRGINIA C.—Constructive elements in the curriculum, 137.
GOODALE, GRACE—Some reflections on the liberal curriculum, 248.
Great inheritance: Mathematics, 30.

HEUSER, FREDERICK W. J.—Culture and Kultur from the viewpoint of a philologist, 227.
High school curriculum, Reorganization of, 122.
history course since 1890, 236.
Junior, Mathematics in the, 391.
History course since 1890, High school, 236.
The elementary college course in, 447.
HOWERTH, I. W.—Aim in education, 61.

Ideals most worthy of loyalty, Educational, 325.
Institutions (academic), Parliamentary usage in, 177.
Insurance and annuities for college teachers, Carnegie Foundation Commission on, 108.
Introductory course in economics, 350.

Japan, The middle schools in, 490.
JASTROW, JOSEPH—The democratic suspicion of education, 433.
JOHNSON, FRANKLIN W.—Varying credit based on quality of work, 44.
Johnson's (Henry) The teaching of history in elementary and secondary schools, 100.
Junior high school, Mathematics in the, 391.

Kansas, Scientific activity in, 105.
KETCHAM, V. A.—Public speaking courses in state universities, 151.
KEYSER, CASSIUS J.—Educational ideals most worthy of loyalty, 325.
KILPATRICK, WILLIAM HEARD—Moore's (Ernest Carroll) What is education? 318.
KRAFT, WILLIAM J.—Yont's (Rose) Status and value of music in education, 188.
Kultur from the viewpoint of a philologist, Culture and, 227.

Latin in the curriculum, Function of, 483.
Lecture or recitation in colleges? 497.
Liberal curriculum, Some reflections on the, 248.
Liberty, Failure to teach the foundations of, 341.
Limitations of normal schools, Proper function and, 465.
LOCKWOOD, DEAN P.—Lowe's (John Adams) Books and libraries, 181.
Lombard's (Frank Alanson) Pre-Meiji education in Japan, 192.
Lowe's (John Adams) Books and libraries, 181.

Loyalty, Educational ideals most worthy of, 325.
Lyon's (Darwin Oliver) The relation of quickness of learning to retentiveness, 193.

MANN, C. R.—Study of engineering education, 11.
Mannheim system of school organization, 55.
Mathematics: A great inheritance, 30.
in the junior high school, 391.
MCHUGH, MARY A.—What children think, 146.
Men or women teachers—which? 98.
Middle schools in Japan, 490.
MONROE, PAUL—Lombard's (Frank Alanson) Pre-Meiji education in Japan, 192.
MORGAN, O. S.—Waters' (Henry Jackson) The essentials of agriculture, 425.
Moore's (Ernest Carroll) What is education? 318.
Morgan's (John J. B.) The overcoming of distraction and other resistances, 193.
Moral force, The teacher as a, 459.
MOWRY, DUANE—Men or women teachers—which? 98.
MURRAY, GILBERT—An educated nation, 517.
Music and educational standards, 312.

Nation, An educated, 517.
New York, Public provision for recreation in, 209.
Normal schools, Proper function and limitations of, 465.
Notes and news, 103, 202, 323, 431, 528.
Notes on new books, 102, 198, 320, 428, 527.

Obstacle, Seniority as an, 323.
to educational progress, Baccalaureate degree as, 94.
Organization (school), The Mannheim system of, 55.
O'SHEA, M. V.—Morgan's (John J. B.) The overcoming of distraction and other resistances, 193.
Lyon's (Darwin Oliver) The relation of quickness of learning to retentiveness, 193.
Peterson's (Harvey A.) Methods of testing school children for defects of vision and hearing, 193.

Parliamentary usage in academic institutions, 177.
PERRY, JR., A. C.—The teacher as a moral force, 459.
PERSONS, CHARLES E.—The introductory course in economics, 350.
Peterson's (Harvey A.) Methods of testing school children for defects of vision and hearing, 193.
Philologist, Culture and Kultur from the viewpoint of, 227.
Presidential reports, Some, 528.
Problem of Central Europe: (I), 161; (II), 294; (III), 397.
Progress (educational), Baccalaureate degree as an obstacle to, 94.
Proper function and limitations of normal schools, 465.
Psychology, Academic status of, 431.
Public provision for recreation in New York, 209.
school troubles in the South, 178.
speaking courses in state universities, 151.

Quality of work, Varying credit based on, 44.
Quamdiu, O Domine, quamdiu, 265.

RATHMANN, C. G.—The Mannheim system of school organization, 55.
Recitation in colleges? Lecture or, 497.
Recreation in New York, Public provision for, 209.
Reflections (Some) on the liberal curriculum, 248.
Reports, Some presidential, 528.
Reorganization of the high school curriculum, 122.
Reviews, 100, 181, 318, 425, 525.
RICE, JAMES G.—Public school troubles in the South, 178.
Rome, American Academy in, 212.

SADLER, MICHAEL E.—The future of English education, 87.
SAKAMOTO, K.—The middle schools in Japan, 490.
SCHOEN, MAX—Music and educational standards, 312.
School organization, The Mannheim system of, 55.
troubles in the South, Public, 178.
survey, Buffalo, 204.
system, Cooperation in a, 329.
trustee, Confessions of, 1.
Schools in Japan, The middle, 490.
Proper function and limitations of normal, 465.

SCHUYLER, R. L.—Specimen answers of college candidates in history written at the examination in June, 1916, 184.
Science and the age of things, 72.
Scientific activity in Kansas, 105.
Seniority as an obstacle, 323.
Should specialists specialize? 217.
SLEFFEL, C. C.—Ballard's (Philip Boswood) Handwork as an educational medium, 190.
SMITH, DAVID EUGENE—Mathematics in the junior high school, 391.
SMITH, WALTER ROBINSON—Proper function and limitations of normal schools, 465.
Some presidential reports, 528.
reflections on a liberal curriculum, 248.
South, Public school troubles in, 178.
Specialize, Should specialists? 217.
Specimen answers of college candidates in history written at the examination in June, 1916, 184.
State universities, Public speaking courses in, 151.
Status of psychology, Academic, 431.
Study of engineering education, 11.
Suggestions, Twenty-five, 202.
Superficiality, The cultivation of, 215.
Superintendent Blewett, Death of, 324.
Survey, The Buffalo school, 204.
Suspicion of education, The democratic, 433.
SWIFT, LUCIUS B.—Failure to teach the foundations of liberty, 341.
System (The Mannheim) of school organization, 55.
(school), Cooperation in a, 329.

TAYLOR, WILBUR L.—Science and the age of things, 72.
Teach the foundations of liberty, Failure to, 341.
Teacher as a moral force, 459.
Teachers, Men or women—which? 98.
Teaching thrift by means of arithmetic, 512.
Tenure of office, Academic freedom and, 416.
Thrift by means of arithmetic, Teaching, 512.
TINGLEY, HELEN E. B.—Parliamentary usage in academic institutions, 177.
Trustee (school), Confessions of, 1.
Twenty-five suggestions, 202.

Universities (state), Public speaking courses in, 151.

Varying credit based on quality of work, 44.
VIVIAN, ROXANA H.—Mathematics: A great inheritance, 30.

War and education, 534.
Waters' (Henry Jackson) The essentials of agriculture, 425.
What children think, 146.
Wilfulness and wisdom, 504.
Wisdom, Wilfulness and, 504.
WOOD, THOMAS D.—Dresslar's (Fletcher B.) School hygiene, 186.
Work of the College Entrance Examination Board, 371.

Yont's (Rose) The status and value of music in education, 188.
YOUNG, JAMES REED—Reorganization of the high school curriculum, 12.